Mobile payment company Mint Wireless (ASX:MNW) has signed a partnership deal with Motorola to provide mobile payment services through the latter's vendor channel.

Under the agreement, Mint Wireless will provide its Mint Managed Payments Service to members of Motorola's Independent Software Vendors (ISV) and Solution channel partners.

The service will initially launch in Australia, with support for the UK and Ireland to follow quickly, Mint Wireless CEO Cameron Olsen said.

"We will also look to expand the service to other European and Asia Pacific markets," he said.
