1 NOKIA E71

You can switch this very sexy smart phone from work mode (high speed email and appointments) to play mode (with music and web surfing) with a flick of the wrist. Available on 3 Mobile. Price: $709 > nokia.com.au

2 MARTIN JETPACK

Everyone wants to fly like a (very noisy) bird. Today is the day! Martin USA has released the first commercial jetpack, with enough thrust to get a 120kg man 8,000 feet up. Price: $US100,000 > martinjetpack.com

MEN'S STYLE SPECIAL

3 SONY STYLE EX SPORTS HEADPHONES

The rigid behind-the-neck band will keep these suckers on your noggin while you work out, and there's a shorter cable (with extension provided) so you don't get tangled up when your MP3 player's tucked into an armband holster. Price: $99 > sonystyle.com.au

5 CREATIVE VADO POCKET VIDEO CAMERA

Carrying a video camera needn't require you to lug a silly padded bag. The Vado is 16mm thick and weighs only 84 grams, but it has a 5cm screen and can store up to two hours' of footage. It's not going to replace your HD camcorder, but if you're into MySpace, Facebook or YouTube then this little device is perfect for those in-the-moment captures. Price: $149.95 > au.store.creative.com

4 TRANSCEND T.PHOTO 720 DIGITAL FRAME

With 2 gigabytes of memory this frame will shuffle through your past quite thoroughly. It can also play video and be used as a calendar (with alarm clock). Pasty party shots can be touched up by the NaturaTone skin tone enhancement. Out soon. Not yet. Price: TBA > transcendusa.com

6 NIKON COOLPIX P6000

If you've ever wanted a high-end digital SLR camera but couldn't justify the price (or your skills couldn't justify it), Nikon has the P6000, which is a great learner for someone planning to get serious about photography. Price: $749 > nikon.com.au

7 BLACKBERRY BOLD
For business users (or serious emailers), RIM's BlackBerry series is the gold standard. The Bold takes it a step further with multimedia features and use-anywhere web browsing. Available through Optus. Price: $89 a month > blackberrybold.com

9 NUMARK TTI TURNTABLE
Connect to a notebook or sound system – and you can record your vinyl direct to your iPod. Price: $599 > elfa.com.au

10 EVERDURE E2 BARBECUE
Designed for small spaces, the stainless steel e2 has two burners which shut off if the wind blows them out, so no-one gets a nasty surprise, and halogen lighting to help you establish when dinner's ready. Price: $999. > e.everdure.com

11 CREATIVE ZEN MOZAIC
This multimedia masterwork comes in 2GB and 4GB models, both with a 4.5cm screen and a decently powerful built-in speaker. It weighs only 43 grams and can play back video from your PC as well as FM radio, with enough battery grunt to last 30 hours. Available in black, silver and pink. Price: 4GB, $129.95 > au.store.creative.com

12 SANYO XACTI VPC-CA8
Want to shoot video or take photos underwater? So long as you're not diving deeper than 1.5 metres, this camcorder and 8-megapixel camera is packed full of features. With a 5x optical/12x digital zoom and a revolver grip, the next big wave is ready for the taking. Price: $699. > sanyo.com.au

8 AIPTEK V10 POCKET PROJECTOR
The possibilities include go-anywhere PlayStation or Xbox 360, connecting to your notebook or portable DVD player on a trip or right into your camcorder for quick turnaround holiday movies. Price: $649 > mwn.com.au
